Main entrance for the Wisconsin Center is on the SE corner of the building at 4th and Wisconsin Ave.

There is street parking, pay lots and parking structures surrounding the playing facility. Here is a link to some more info regarding parking. Parking Information

There are two levels of escalators to reach the courts. The first escalator is for all to take. For the 2nd level of escalator, the south escalator will be for spectators and the north escalator will be for players and coaches.

Admission is $8 per day or $15 for a 2-day pass. Admission will be charged for anyone non-rostered and 12 years of age or older.

All live results will be posted on Advancedeventsystems. We will have 4 public computers to view results. Public WiFi is only available in the commons area.

A trainer will be on-site for the entirety of the tournament.

Coolers and Chairs are not allowed in the Wisconsin Center.

We are in need of singer(s) needed for the national anthem on Saturday and Sunday morning. If you have anyone interested in singing the anthem to start our event each day, please have them send me an email at wjrs.kelly.lehman@gmail.com

There are just a few spots left open in the Misty May - Dream in Gold clinic for players and coaches on Friday at the Wisconsin Center January 13th the night before the Winter Classic. This event is separate from the tournament but a great opportunity to meet and be coached by Misty May, so please forward on the attachment and the following link to your coaches/teams/families. <https://2017digmilwaukee.eventbrite.com>

The Milwaukee Bucks are in town and playing Friday/Monday as well, so if you don't want to attend the Misty May Clinic, maybe an exciting NBA game is more what your looking for. Again this is a separate event from the tournament, but the Milwaukee Bucks have put together a ticket package for anyone interested in attending the game. Details are attached.
